Sheriff Thomas has returned from a ten-day invasion of the realm of the frost king. He went to Chicago after Ralph Holter, one of the bandits, who in company with C. E. Lovell, broke into and robbed the station at Belleview about a year ago. Holter was captured and held by the Chicago police. Mr. Thomas with his prisoner went to St. Louis, where he met O. H. Rogers, who had been to Leavenworth, to take over from the federal authorities a Florida man who broke out of the state prison over two years ago, and passed most of the intervening time in the Leavenworth penitentiary. Both officers arrived safely with their prisoners, the bad weather making their trip two or three days longer than it otherwise would have been.

Mrs. Frederick Hocker's home was the scene of a delightful hospitality yesterday afternoon when she entertained Circle B of the Baptist church. There were nineteen members present and the following visitors: Mrs. Carson Lee, of Washington; Mrs. Raiford Simmons, of Statesboro, Ga.; Miss Isabelle Hale, Mrs. J. C. Johnson and Mrs. Lula E. Standley. A great deal of sewing was accomplished after which the hostess served dainty refreshments assisted by Mrs. Mamie Hall, Mrs. L. W. Duval and Mrs. R. H. Floyd. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. D. Robertson, No. 203 Oklawaha avenue.

Mrs. Fred Robinson and Miss Lucille Robinson have taken Mrs. R. G. Blake's cottage on East Fourth street, where they are comfortably located. Mrs. Robinson and daughter arrived Saturday afternoon instead of Tuesday, as noted in this paper.

All jewelry repair work is done by expert workmen at Sam T. Wilson's jewelry store in the Harrington Hall block. 5-tf

Mr. Hansel Leavengood, who has been enjoying zero weather for the past three weeks in Pennsylvania and Ohio, is enroute home, arriving in Milledgeville, Ga., Sunday, and is the guest for a few days of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Jones. He will probably arrive in Ocala tomorrow.

There's no extra charge for cleaning your fish at the City Fish Market. Phone 158. 1f

Mr. B. M. Kimsey of Atlanta arrived in Ocala a few days ago and has secured one of the Tydings buildings on West Broadway where he has opened an auto top building establishment. The name of his new enterprise is the Quick Service Auto Top Company, and Mr. Kimsey says that the name carries out exactly the policy of the establishment. His location is next to the Dixie Highway garage.

Mrs. J. W. McCollum and Mrs. W. M. Pepper, of Gainesville, and Mrs. Foy, of Philadelphia, who is wintering in Gainesville, were visitors in Ocala yesterday. The two former came on business connected with the Florida Bulletin, the official organ of the Florida Federation of Woman's Clubs, of which Mrs. McCollum is editor. Mrs. Pepper is the wife of Editor Pepper of the Gainesville Sun. During their stay here they visited Silver Springs.
